Examiner's Amendment/Reasons for Allowance

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Shawn Cage on September 15, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

1. Claim 71, line 10, delete "to form the convex lens"; and
2. Claim 79, line 2, delete "material is" and insert therein --material comprises at least one of--.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103. Specifically, with respect to independent claim 19, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed method of producing an optical device specifically including, as the distinguishing features in combination with the other limitations, the projection having a substantially rotationally symmetric shape with respect to an optical axis, the claimed surface of the projection as substantially an arc, and in the flattening step, a surface of the second optical portion is polished so that a flat plane substantially vertical with respect to the symmetry axis of the concavity is formed. Specifically, with respect to independent claim 71, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed method of producing an optical device specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations the step of forming a hole so that part of the convex curved face of the convex lens that closely contact the concavity of the first optical portion is exposed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jordan M. Schwartz whose telephone number is (571) 272-2337. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Friday (8:30 to 4:30).

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Georgia Y. Epps can be reached at (571) 272-2328. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
